

Harding University
Scholar Works at Harding

---

John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence

John Allen Chalk

---

9-17-1965

To: E.W. McMillan

John Allen Chalk

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal>

---

Recommended Citation

Chalk, J. A. (1965). To: E.W. McMillan. Retrieved from <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal/6187>

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the John Allen Chalk at Scholar Works at Harding. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Scholar Works at Harding. For more information, please contact scholarworks@harding.edu.

September 17, 1965

Mr. E. W. McMillan
Northside Church of Christ
2130 North Grand Avenue
Santa Ana, California

Dear Brother McMillan:

Your gracious letter was awaiting when I returned from our efforts in southern California. Due to an earlier departure than originally planned, I did not receive it even as I suggested to you. Thank you so much for your genuine interest and unusual encouragement of my work.

It was a pleasure to preach for the Northside congregation and to glimpse some of the dynamism which obviously grips that group. I know this is because of the spiritual leadership and unusual depth of thought that you have continually brought to the group.

You did a matchless job in arranging for the conduct of the public services in the "Christ for Today" effort. I can never express enough gratitude for your efforts and concern. A tremendous load was lifted from me by simply knowing that you were in charge. My expectations were not disappointed. Thank you for all your concern and encouragement. May God bless you and your family richly in the days ahead.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk

JAC:mm